Enrichment DIY

Snuffle Sushi - Stuff a paper towel roll with fabric strips and a yummy chew treat hidden in the middle. If you are using a towel or blanket, multiple tubes can be used to make a chain!

Snuffle Snail - Use a rolled-up blanket to make the shape and cut strips of toilet roll tubes looped throughout the blanket that helped keep it all together. Then filled with kibble/treats and let the dog snuffle away! The rolled-up blanket made nice deep pockets for the kibble/treats!

Extreme Puzzle Box - Fill a box with shredded paper layered with treats or food!

A Hole in One - A box filled with cut tube rolls with treats/food in the tubes.

Honeycomb balls - Stuff strips of fabric and treats into a honeycomb ball for a rewarding puzzle!

Ball pit with treats – Sprinkle treats at the bottom of an empty kiddie pool. Cover treats with balls turning it into a ball pit. Dog uses their sniffer to seek treats. (No pool? No problem! Can be used with a variety of items, such as a size appropriate box!)

Stuffed Kong tire – Cover inner area with treat such as pumpkin or peanut butter. Can freeze to be longer lasting and more fun!

Snuffle mat Vs Deep Box/Basket- Stuff a relatively larger box or basket with a fully loaded snuffle mat. This allows treats to be hidden deeper/better.

Wrapped bully sticks – Wrapping a bully stick in this toy allows for it to last longer and the pups to use their noggin to figure out how to eat their yummy treat! <https://www.amazon.com/dp/B0002DJXGW/>

Muffin tin and tennis balls - Put treats in muffin tin and cover each section with a tennis ball. Your dog will have fun searching for the treats!

Frozen Puzzle Feeders – Fill a puzzle feeder with yummy items and freeze it to turn it into a puzzle Popsicle!

Treat Roll-up – Lay a towel out and line treats/kibble up the middle. Roll the towel up. Dogs have to use their nose to unfurl the towel and get the treat.

Serve yourself treat dispenser – Fill an empty tissue box with a handful of treats. Stuff the opening with a loofah, string hanging out. Tape the tissue box, upside down to the leg of a table. Fido will have to figure out how to get the treats out of the box!
