Animal Care Centers of NYC
Impact Report
2024

Dear Friends,

I am delighted to share ACC's Impact Report for 2024. Reflecting on the highs and lows from this past year, we remain inspired by the resilience of our community and emboldened by the support from our partners throughout New York City. This past year a steady stream of pet surrenders, an increased number of stray animals, and overcrowding in the shelters have tested our resolve to pursue our mission to end animal homelessness in New York City. Yet ACC continued its commitment to deliver services to elevate the human-animal bond.

The challenges ACC faces are not unique, they are part of a broader crisis impacting shelters nationwide. Economic instability has left many pet owners struggling to provide for their animals, while veterinary care costs continue to rise. Despite these difficulties, our commitment to the well-being of every animal remained steadfast.

We are taking bold steps to meet these challenges. We are launching a new veterinary center to provide critical care for pets whose families might otherwise be forced to surrender them. This initiative is just one part of a larger effort to keep pets with their families whenever possible. We are also expanding our foster and adoption outreach efforts, working tirelessly to place animals in loving homes and alleviate pressure on our shelters. Our partnerships with rescue organizations, community groups, and local businesses have been instrumental in these efforts, helping us to provide additional resources and support to both animals and pet owners.

Additionally, we are investing in new programs designed to enhance animal welfare and streamline our operations. In August 2024, we opened a state of the art Animal Care Center in Queens, allowing us to expand our capacity and provide even more support to the animals in need. In October 2024, we also opened an award-winning, modern Pet Adoption Center in Manhattan, creating a welcoming space for potential adopters to meet their future pets and find the perfect match. These new facilities represent a significant step forward for ACC and the state of animal welfare in NYC.

We remain deeply grateful for the compassion and commitment of our supporters. Whether you have adopted, fostered, volunteered, or donated, your contributions make a profound impact. Your generosity and advocacy help us continue this vital work, ensuring that every animal has a chance of a better life.

Together, we can end animal homelessness in NYC. Thank you for standing with us.

With gratitude,

President and CEO

FINDING HOMES

ACC finds loving homes for thousands of companion animals in need each year. We take in every animal surrendered regardless of its health, age, breed, or behavior. This commitment to open admission guarantees shelter and care to thousands of animals that would otherwise have no safe refuge.

In 2024 with the help of a growing number of adopters and New Hope partners we were able to find placement for 91% of the over 15,000 companion animals that came through our doors.

New Hope Partnership

Although ACC may be the first stop along an animal's rescue journey, there are thousands of animals that require medical and behavioral resources beyond our capacity. This is where community partnership is vital. ACC's vast network of over 300 New Hope adoption partners are essential to NYC's animal welfare community.

These partners provide specialized medical care and behavioral attention for animals who may otherwise not be ready or suitable for adoption to the general public. In 2024 ACC welcomed 42 new rescue groups to our existing roster of over 300 New Hope partners.

A special thank you to Best Friends Animal Society for hosting multiple pop-up adoption events in 2024!

GIVING HOPE

ACC's Community Resources teams offer pets and people a multitude of services. Keeping animals who have loving homes out of our shelters saves lives and honors the human-animal bond. Our Community Pets program offers vaccination clinics, pet food pantries and training assistance. The Surrender Prevention program works closely and compassionately with families facing complex situations, connecting them with social services support and resources to help pets stay with the people they know and love. Thanks to the generosity of private sector partners, every year ACC is able to help over 5,000 New Yorkers and the pets they depend on for companionship, comfort, and love. We are incredibly grateful to the ASPCA and the Irving and Phyllis Millstein Foundation for their support of these vital programs.

boroughbred

noun

A New York City Animal - a special breed. Like us, they're a mix in the melting pot, both in their personalities and their backgrounds. That's why every pet at ACC, like every New Yorker, is unique, resilient, and individual in their own right. They're a boroughbred.

SHOWCASING BOROUGHBREDS

Telling our animals' stories is a powerful way to inspire compassion and drive action. Our marketing, education, and outreach teams amplify our impact across digital and in-person platforms.

- ACC's animals and campaigns reached 52 million people across social media platforms in 2024.
- Our follower base grew to 489,000, reflecting increased engagement and interest in our work.
- Through our humane education initiative, we delivered 118 presentations to children and students across the five boroughs, fostering empathy and responsible pet ownership among the next generation.

These efforts are more than just numbers, they're how we build a city that cares deeply about animal welfare.

ENGAGING THE COMMUNITY

The heartbeat of ACC is our community. Volunteers, fosters, and advocates are integral to everything we do, and their contributions were nothing short of extraordinary in 2024.

- 1,655 animals were placed into temporary foster homes through our Boroughbred Foster Program, providing a crucial bridge to adoption and relief from the shelter environment.
- Our outreach team hosted 55 events in neighborhoods across NYC, offering pet wellness services, distributing resources, and connecting directly with the public.
- Our dedicated volunteer corps contributed 37,319 hours of service, helping with everything from walking dogs to supporting adoptions and offsite events.

Their efforts are a testament to the love New Yorkers have for animals, and their desire to be part of the solution.

LOOKING AHEAD

2024 was a year of growth and extraordinary outcomes, made possible by extraordinary people. From the expansion of Veterinary Services and Surrender Prevention to the thousands of families formed through adoption, we've seen the impact of unified, citywide compassion.

But there is more work to be done. As we look toward the future, ACC is focused on deepening our services in underserved communities, advocating for policies that support pet owners, and continuing to build a shelter system rooted in innovation, respect, and care.

Together, with our partners, our city, and all who believe in a better future for animal welfare, we will end animal homelessness in NYC.

Thank you for being part of this journey.
